Our President

Mr. Reese D. McLendon came to Northwest Mississippi Junior College in 1953. Since that time he has devoted his time and energy toward making Northwest one of the best junior colleges in the state.

From 1953 to the present, the enrollment of the college has increased to more than four times what it was before Mr. McLendon became the president of Northwest. The physical aspects of the campus have also changed, as there have been many new buildings added in the last fourteen years. But the physical changes can not show the deeper influence that Mr. McLendon has had on Northwest. His spirit has permeated every activity and has raised the students' school spirit as he has raised the standards in education. In fact, the whole image of Northwest has changed due to his influence.

When he came to Northwest he brought with him his charming wife, who has done a great deal to make the Northwest campus beautiful. She is truly an artist in flower arrangement, and this skill is shown by the lovely arrangements that she places in the buildings. She also supervises the planting and care of the many flowers and shrubs on the campus.

In general, the growth, progress, and spirit of Northwest are a living tribute to the tremendous ability of our President and his wife.

English composition is required of almost every academic student at Northwest. The purpose of the course is to ensure mechanical correctness of language in ordinary speech and writing. The survey course offered to sophomores in English literature places emphasis on the major works of representative men of each literary period.

Both French and Spanish were taught at Northwest this year. In elementary courses in both French and Spanish emphasis is on grammar, pronunciation, and reading. In the second year course in both languages emphasis is placed on grammar, review, translation, conversation, and reading.

The 1966 Northwest Coaching Staff

Ranger fortunes were guided this year by line coach Lavelle Upton, head coach Billy Joe Cox, and backfield coach Sanford Powell. Coach Upton came to Northwest this year from Millsaps College. The Rangers

The traditional team prayer serves as inspiration to players and spectators before each Ranger football game gets underway.

Northwest 27

Jones 0

The Rangers started the season in high gear by licking the Jones Bobcats 27-0 behind a two touchdown outburst by tailback Malvin Jeffords.

The Bobcats from Ellisville never got closer than the 20 yard line as the Ranger defense, led by Charlie Ellard's 13 tackles kept pressure on the enemy for a full 60 minutes.

Things looked good for the Ranger title defense because Jones was figured to be one of the best teams in the Mississippi Junior College Conference.

Bubba Peacock (80) and Don Key (33) close in on a unhappy quarterback. Time after time, during the season, the defense was magnificent.

Northwest 7

Holmes 7

Playing in Goodman, Miss., the Rangers had to fight for their lives to preserve a 7-7 tie with the charged up Bulldogs. Malvin Jeffords scored the only Northwest touchdown on a 19 yard run. The injury bug struck when sophomore quarterback Joey Treadway broke his leg on the last play of the first half. However, freshman Harold Henderson filled in well for the injured starter.

A tie football game has been likened unto kissing one's sister, but the Rangers were fortunate under the circumstances to be kissing anyone at all in this one.

Northwest 6

Copiah-Lincoln 15

Northwest tumbled to the howling Wolves of Copiah-Lincoln in the season's third contest 15-6. Neither team was able to generate much offense with all three touchdowns in the game marked up via the air lanes. Co-Lin scored on 63 and 68 yard pass plays while Henderson was hitting end Gerald Young with an 18 yarder for the only Ranger tally. The Ranger record after this game was 1-1-1, but it was not the end of Northwest's championship hopes. Only a year ago, the Blue and White dropped two games and played a tie, and it was good enough for the conference crown.

Quarterbacks and ends are particularly noted for their superior intelligence.

Some centers aren't particularly noted for anything.

Northwest 30 East Mississippi 18

The Rangers upped their record to 2-1-1 with a 30-18 win over the Lions of East Mississippi behind a sterling performance by quarterback Harold Henderson. The rangy freshman scored two touchdowns and tossed to split end Rickey Patrick for two more scores. Pete Weeks kicked a 38 yard field goal and hit on three extra point attempts in as many tries.

This game was an indication of the hidden talent that was to dominate the majority of the season. After the Co-Lin fiasco, the win was especially sweet because the Rangers were able to rebound and defeat a strong Lion squad.

At this point of the season, Perkinston led the league with a 4-0-0 record with the Rangers holding down fourth place. Chances began to look dim for a title shot.

Sometimes there just ain't no place to go.

"Pay? Why fried chicken after the game of course."

"If he does it again, slug 'em."

Northwest 43

Southwest 35

Northwest scored five touchdowns in the last half to outlast the Southwest Bears 43-35. The Rangers took a 9-0 lead in the second quarter on the strength of a 28 yard field goal by Pete Weeks and a scoring plunge by Henderson.

Southwest came roaring back with two scores and the Rangers trailed at half-time 14-9. In the second half, Malvin Jeffords tallied twice, Rickey Patrick once, and Henderson added his second and third scores of the night.

The win moved Northwest up a notch in conference standings with a 3-1-1 record.

"With a six yard average and still on the suicide squad."

"I said stay down."

Mommas and Poppas after the game

Northwest 24

Itawamba 15

The Rangers built up a 24-0 lead by halftime against the Itawamba Indians in Fulton then coasted to a 24-15 win and moved into second place in the conference standings.

Pete Weeks got things started with a 28 yard field goal. Jeffords scored from 10 out, Sonny Orrell caught a six yard scoring toss from Henderson, and Rickey Parsons ran an intercepted pass back 54 yards for the final Northwest score.

The Indians scored twice in the second half, but for all practical purposes the game might have well been called off at the half. This was one of the most determined Ranger efforts of the year. Now at 4-1-1, momentum was pushing the comeback Rangers.

"Looks like they found those steel forearm pads."

"Don't worry about this league, Lombardi's looking at you."

"Is this what you mean by running guard coach?"

Northwest 7

Hinds 21

The Rangers ran into the proverbial buzz saw in Raymond playing the supposedly downtrodden Hinds Eagles.

Northwest scored only one touchdown on the Eagles and allowed three . . . thus the final score 7-21. The lone Ranger tally was registered by sub tailback John Hartley on a 68 yard punt return.

The Blue and White did not play a bad ball game. They just caught the Eagles at their homecoming and they were making plays that the fearsome foursome of the L.A. Rams would have difficulty in containing.

The season record dropped to 4-2-1.

A yard short!

"Aw, ref, it looked good to us."

"*O!!-&'@"

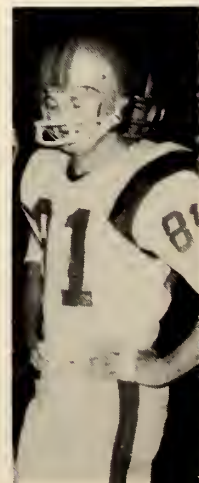

"Wait 'til next year."

"We'll not fight about it, lads."

"Of all the . . ."

Northwest 21 Pearl River 7

Rickey Patrick, Malvin Jeffords, and Mickey Easley scored touchdowns for Northwest and the defense held Pearl River to a single marker in the Rangers fifth win of the season.

Pushed back into second place in the league standings, Northwest trailed league leading Perkinson by only one-half game.

Top level post-game chat by old friends.

Despite a few anxious moments, it was a breeze.

"Come on slow poke."

Patrick makes a catch between three defenders.

Northwest 35

Delta 6

An overflow Homecoming crowd of nearly 3000 sports fans saw the Rangers earn a 35-6 win over Mississippi Delta and push their season record to 6-2-1.

End Rickey Patrick had possibly his finest night as a Ranger, catching eight passes, three for touchdowns. Harold Henderson hit on 17 of 30 tosses for 310 yards and four scores to pace the dangerous air attack. Milton Cushman and Gerald Young also scored for Northwest.

All-State linebacker Don Key had a good defensive night along with Rick Parsons, Charlie Ellard, Valley Holder, and Charles Crain.

Hartley up the middle

"Cool, real cool."

"Sorry 'bout that."

Part of the homecoming crowd.

Northwest 17

East Central 14

East Mississippi provided the Rangers with 60 minutes of action packed football before finally yielding 17-14 with a last quarter field goal by Pete Weeks providing the margin of victory.

Northwest wound up the season with a 7-2-1 record good enough for second place in the conference behind Perkinson 8-2-0. Had Perkinson lost to Jones in their season finale, the Rangers would have copped their second consecutive conference crown, however, Perk nipped Jones 21-14.

Many of the Rangers will return for another season of football in the Mississippi Junior College Conference, and with the experience gained by freshmen this year . . . 1967 could be the year that "Northwest takes it all."

Patrick snares an aerial offering.

"If I had the wings of an angel, over these . . ."

Everyone Will Remember

A beautiful fall day welcomed Northwest's students, alumni and friends to the annual Homecoming on Saturday, November 12, 1966. The theme was the completion of the technical complex of five buildings and the dedication of three recently completed buildings.

Northwest was honored to have Governor Paul Johnson present for the festivities.

The day's events began with a pep rally in downtown Senatobia. The procession left Northwest at 12:15 p. m. led by the Northwest Misses and the Ranger Band. The first car was occupied by the Sophomore Maids, and the second by the Freshmen Maids. The court was made up of Betty Van Winkle, Water Valley sophomore; Jane Patterson, Southaven sophomore; Judy Woolfolk, Senatobia sophomore; Bennie Waggener, Memphis freshman; and Frances Rowland, Charleston freshman. The car carrying the cheerleaders followed the court. They were followed by cars from the various Northwest organizations, beginning with the Student Council car. The cars were gaily decorated with the names or emblems of the organizations their occupants represented.

The pep rally, sponsored by the Student Council, got the day off to a good start.

Reception Honors Governor And Special Guests

After tours of the technical buildings and Gainey Hall, a men's residence building, the next event of the afternoon was a reception from 3:00 until 4:00 in honor of Governor Johnson; A. P. Fatherree, director of the Division of Vocational and Technical Education of the Mississippi Department of Education, for whom the agriculture technology building is named; and members of the Berry and Gainey families. Berry Building is named in honor of the late P. W. Berry, who was the first president of the Junior College. Gainey Hall is named in honor of the late Andrew G. Gainey, who was the first president of the high school which later became the Junior College.

In the receiving line with Governor Johnson and his wife were Mr. and Mrs. Fatherree, members of the Berry and Gainey families; President and Mrs. R. D. McLendon, Mr. Don Bartlett of Como, president of the Northwest Board of Trustees, and Mrs. Bartlett; Student Council president, Butch Still, and Queen Betty Van Winkle.

The climax of the afternoon events came at 4:30, when the ceremonies to dedicate the new buildings were held in the auditorium. An address was given by Governor Johnson. President R. D. McLendon presided at the program, and Mr. Don Bartlett, president of the Board of Trustees, introduced the Governor. Mr. Wilson Edmondson, chairman of the building committee of the Board of Trustees, made the presentation dedicating the A. P. Fatherree Agriculture Technology Building and Gainey Hall. The final event of the evening was a Homecoming Dance from 10:30 until 12:00 in the gymnasium. The decorations for the dance included a set of wedding rings in the center of the dance floor. Hanging from the rings were the signs "Academic" and "Technical." They represented the marriage of the academic and technical programs at Northwest.

As the evening crept away, tired Northwest students, alumni, and friends also left richly rewarded with memories of a wonderful day to cherish as they await the next Northwest Homecoming.

The Spring Formal Court

The annual Spring Formal was held in the gaily decorated gymnasium on March 31, 1967. Reigning over the dance was the Court, composed of five Northwest beauties selected by the student body. The Queen and her Maids chose their escorts for the evening's events. During the dance the Queen was crowned, and there were various types of entertainment. The Court included from left to right: Pamela Jones, Bobby Edmondson, Sharon Christ, David Jones, Rita Burford, Hal Herron, Sherri Hughey, Mickey Easley, Wilma Parker, and Jerry Beeler.
